

Speaker 1: Ladies and gentlemen, please welcome back Peter Robinson.

Peter Robinson: That's it. On behalf of the Polish National Foundation, the Ronald Reagan Foundation and Institute, the Heritage Foundation, the Hudson Institute, the Institute of World Politics and the Victims of Communism Foundation, thank you. And one closing thought. We heard today, not only about events three decades ago, but about concerns today and here's the closing thought to paraphrase Margaret Thatcher's eulogy for Ronald Reagan, "We have the benefit of something that Ronald Reagan and John Paul II lacked, we have their example." Ladies and gentlemen, be not afraid. Thank you.
